

National Conference
on Social, Economic, Technological impact of Alternate Energy Sources

13th March 2020

The Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering has conducted National Conference on Social, Economic, Technological impact of Alternate Energy Sources on 13th March 2020. The event hosted researchers from various parts of Tamil Nadu and South India. Dr. Janakiraman, Retired Professor from IIT Madras, presided over the inaugural session of the Conference and gave a thoughtful presentation on the recent scenario in Alternate Energy sources. The event had presentation ranging from technological and economic aspects of Renewable Energy. Dr. Meenakshi Sundaram, retired Scientist from IGCAR, presided during the Valedictory function and gave a presentation on the relevance of Renewable Energy in the times of Climate Change.

