PRESS REJOINDER

It has come to our attention through media reports dated today that one of our staff members, Mr. Parasuraman, who has been employed at our institution since the past decade, has been implicated in alleged illegal activities.

We wish to unequivocally state that our institution had no prior knowledge or involvement in any such activities. We hereby disassociate ourselves from any unlawful actions attributed to Mr. Parasuraman.

We strongly condemn any form of unlawful conduct and assert our commitment to full cooperation with the authorities. We trust that the law will take its due course, and we will take all necessary steps to ensure that our institution remains compliant with legal standards and ethical practices.
